| The Purpose of the Cover

The purpose of this policy is to provide insurance cover against certain unforeseen or unexpected events that may affect Your Trip. The policy does not cover all possible events and expenses. The policy is a contract between You and Certain Underwriters at Lloyd's.

The contract consists of:

- Your Certificate of Insurance;
- Any declarations You make in relation to the policy or variation thereto; and
- Any written endorsements We issue to You.

| Updating this PDS

We may need to amend this PDS at a later date. A paper copy of any updated information is available to You free of charge by calling Us. We will issue You with a new PDS or a supplementary PDS where the update is to correct a misleading or deceptive statement or an omission, which is materially adverse from the viewpoint of a reasonable person deciding whether to purchase this insurance.

| Date Prepared

This PDS was authorised on 1 November 2015 and remains valid until superseded by a new or supplementary PDS. Claims are assessed in accordance with the PDS/policy wording effective at the time of purchase.

| Cooling Off Period

If You decide You no longer want this insurance policy, You are entitled to a refund of the total amount You paid provided this occurs within fourteen (14) days of issue; before Your Trip begins; and no claim has been made against the policy. No refund will be provided if You cancel Your policy outside the Cooling Off Period. We may provide a partial refund if You amend Your policy prior to Your departure on the insured Trip.

| The Total Cost

Your premium is calculated taking into account many risk factors. The premium is payable before cover can be issued. Your total premium includes all government charges which are shown separately on the certificate. If You change Your policy in any way after issue, You may be entitled to a premium refund or You may be asked to pay additional premium.

| How various factors affect Your Premium

We consider a number of issues in calculating Your premium. The main factors that influence Your premium are the type of cover You choose, whether You request cover for Pre-existing Medical Condition/s or choose to include optional extras. The area in which You will be travelling also affects Your premium.

| Taxation

If You are a registered person and require a tax invoice for GST purposes, please contact Us.

| Policy Excess

If You make a claim under the policy, You may be required to pay an Excess. The standard Excess is $200 but it does not apply to all policy sections. Please refer to the policy wording for details of the policy sections to which the Excess applies. At the time of purchasing the policy You will be asked to nominate Your policy Excess. You can choose to reduce or increase the standard Excess. If You choose to reduce the Excess, You will be required to pay additional premium. If You choose to increase the Excess, You will receive a premium discount. The Excess You choose will be noted on Your Certificate of Insurance. It is not possible to alter the standard Excess on Annual Multi Trip policies.

| Significant Features and Benefits

This policy affords You the ability to select a cover level which suits Your personal circumstances. It allows You the flexibility to add optional covers and delete cover options that You do not require. The policy is available for business or holiday travel and provides 24 hour access to emergency assistance.

Subject to the terms and conditions of the policy and the cover level You select, key benefits of the policy include, but are not limited to:

- Overseas medical expenses and repatriation to Your Normal Country of Residence;
- Compensation for Cancellation/Curtailment of insured Trip(s);
- Compensation for loss or damage occasioned to Personal Property;
- Compensation for Disruption of Travel;
- Lump sum payments for Accidental Bodily Injury and/or death; and Personal Liability cover.

| Available Plans and Additional Options

This policy provides You with the flexibility to design a policy to suit Your individual needs. Both cover levels provide Overseas Medical Expenses cover (Sections 3-6 inclusive) and Personal Liability cover (Section 15) as standard. The policies are offered as complete packages but You are able to remove unwanted cover modules. Each cover module (ie Cancellation and Curtailment; Property; Disruption; and Legal) includes a number of policy sections. If You wish to remove a cover module, this will remove all policy sections within the cover module. It is not possible to remove an individual policy section. Optional lifestyle and sporting covers are also available to suit Your individual requirements.

| What is Not Covered

In certain circumstances, the policy will not provide any cover to You. You must read the policy document for full details. Some General Exclusions are:

- Medical and dental treatment received in Australia;

| Significant Risks

Possible risks associated with You holding this policy include:

- Whether the policy provides the scope of cover You require. You should carefully read the policy and take note of its terms, conditions and exclusions.
- Whether You are able to comply with the terms and conditions of the policy. Failure to comply could result in Us not paying all or part of a claim.
- Your Duty of Disclosure is very important. If You have not disclosed relevant information, We may be entitled to decline a claim and this can have consequences on Your further insurance cover. This is especially important in respect of Your medical history.

| How to Make a Claim

If You wish to make a claim there are some important things You must do. For full details of how to make a claim, please refer to the Claims Procedure Section of the policy.

| Duty of Disclosure

You have a legal duty of disclosure to Us whenever You apply for, or change an insurance policy.

| What You must tell Us

You have a general duty to disclose to Us everything that You know, or could reasonably be expected to know, is relevant to Our decision whether to insure You, and if We do on what terms. Your general duty applies until the time You enter into the insurance policy. However, Your duty does not require You to disclose anything:

- that reduces the risk to be undertaken by Us;
- that is generally well known;
- that We know or, in the ordinary course of Our business, ought to know; or
- in respect of which We have waived Your duty.

| If You do not tell Us

If You do not answer Our questions honestly or do not properly disclose to Us, We may reduce or refuse to pay a claim or cancel the policy. If You act fraudulently in answering Our questions or not disclosing to Us, We may refuse to pay a claim or treat the policy as never having existed.

| Your general duty applies to changes

Your general duty applies in full when You change or reinstate the insurance policy.

| Your general duty is limited for new policies

When You apply for a new policy Your duty of disclosure applies, but You do not need to disclose something to Us unless We specifically ask You about it. However You must be honest in answering any questions We ask You. You have a legal duty to tell Us anything You know, and which a reasonable person in Your circumstances would include in answering the questions. We will use the answers in deciding whether to insure You and anyone else to be insured under the same policy, and on what terms.

| Who needs to tell Us

It is important that You understand You are disclosing to Us and answering Our questions for Yourself and anyone else You want to be covered by the policy.

| General Insurance Code of Practice

The Insurance Council of Australia has developed the General Insurance Code of Practice (the Code) which is a self regulatory code for insurance companies. We support and comply with the Code which serves to raise the standards of practice and service in the insurance industry. You can obtain a copy of the Code at www.codeofpractice.com.au or by contacting Us.
